BROOKLYN NEWS.

FOUGHT IN A COURT ROOM. LOSS ABOUT $70,000.

oner, but Failed.

A Dozen Policemen There, but Adams Street Court and Police Sta-

Police court methods were strikingly mustrated in the Gates Avenue Police The Latter Was Damaged to Court, Brooklyn, this morning. George H. Wheeler, a milkman, living in Evergreens, Queens County, arrested en his own responsibility a former employee of his, William Miller, who, he he caught in the act of robbing him Mirer, it is charged, has for some been collecting money from sked the assistance of one of the police-men. This was refused on the ground that the prisoner was already in cus-tody and that the policeman had no and that the policeman had to interfere. the mean time a lawyer, who, it is a had been retained by friends of er, advised the prisoner to leave the t-room. His captor protested, but counsellor was emphatic in his adthat his client should make a break gas for it.

williamsburg, from the effects of an imprompting bath he had in the East liver yesterday afternoon. Jacobson was looking about the tugboat Hercules, lying off the Manhattan due Works dock, when he lost his balance and tumbled overboard. It was half an hour before Jacobson was fished out unconscious. He was still alive this morning, but it was said that he would not recover.

How Mrs. McCabe Settled a Dis- Neichin Leaves Part of His Beard pute with Mrs. Wallace.

I. Was All Over the Straying of Their Jealous of Each Other's Work in Children, Cows and Pigs. .

on the head with the mallet end of a of the features of life in Brownsville icitx," said Mrs. Nora Wallace, of the Hebrew section of Brooklyn, yes-her house with a crucifix three feet long and raised it to strike her. She put up her hand, caught the weapon and took I away.

Sutler Street Court, Brooklyn, this morn-

The women had evidently settled their differences before coming to court. As they stood before the bar they were each flanked by a lawyer.

"I am willing to let Mrs. Wallace go, my crucifix."
Oh, I'll do that," said Mrs. Wallace.
Case dismissed," said Justice Walsh, and the two women left the court-room

WANTED IN WHITE PLAINS.

Willer Said to Have Victimized Boarding-House Keepers.

Frederick Miller, of 153 Newal street, 'olice Court, Williamsburg, this morning o await the arrival of officers from White Plains, N. Y., where Miller is wanted for swindling a number of boarding-house keepers.

Miller lived in White Plains a couple of months, and during that time he never hald his board.

KERRIGANWAS FATALLY HURT

Died After Being Struck by a Falling Block. Edward Kerrigan, of Douglas and Hoy elreets. Brooklyn, died at the Long Island Hospital this morning from injuries received while at work on Roberts's warehouse pier, at the foot of Congress street yesterday.

Kerrigan and a number of men were holisting sugar, when the block fastened to the roof broke and a portion of it struck him on the back.

Packed Cigars in the Wrong Box. George Zahn was held for trial in the Lee Work, a citar dealer, at 145 Bedford avenue. Salin was employed by Block until Saturday

Held for Beating a Horse. William Stiller, a driver, of 533 Drigge ave-nue, Williamsburg, was held by Police Justice Stears in the Lee Avenue Police Court, Willismature to-day on a charge of cruelty to animature to-day on a charge of cruelty to animata. Miller was arrested last night at Grand street and Priegs was arrested by Officer Hotehalas, of the Fifth Product. Miller was merclicastly whipping a horse which he was driving.

Shot a Man with an Air Gun. Charles T. Myer, a United States marine, was Arrested at his home, 136 Hudson avenue, Brookto this moraing by Roundsman Allen, of the lower pulson street station, charged with shooting John Quino, of 148 Eudoon avenue, in the law with an air gun. Myer was practising with air gun, and he says the shooting was acuitable.

Wheeler Tried to Hold His Pris- Early Morning Fire in Myrtle Avenue Spreads Rapidly.

tion Narrowly Escaped.

At 2.30 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the clothing establishment of Samuel Goldstein, at 21 Myrtie avenue. Brooklyn, which destroyed nearly James McCue, living on Myrtle ave Goldstein's place when he saw a tongue of flame shoot through a window on the The flames extended to the four-story frame house adjoining, occupied by Edand to No. 25, occupied by Myer Rickand to No. 25, occupied by Myer Rickman's cigar store and F. C. Grundy's heeler had of holding his former embyce was by a warrant. This the comsinant said he was willing to swear t but no clerk of the court was ready take the complaint, although it was ter 9 o clock.

The patrolmen asleep in the dormitory were turned out in double guick order.

The patrolmen asleep in the dormitory were turned out in double quick order, while the firemen drenched the outside right of the street. He got into the before Wheeler could capture him, hen they had a rough and tumble while the lawyer cheered on his mough there were a dozen policent the court-room at the time, and were standing within a few feet e door, no attempt was made to the disturbance. The disturbance are finally broke away and ran down treet, closely followed by Wheeler, are both expected in court again the cross complaints of robbery and the standard of the disturbance. The station-house building was damaged to the extent of $300. None of the records in the police court was destroyed, although the floors were flooded with water.

Mr. Goldstein and his family are out of town. The only other families in the buildings were the Zimmerles and the Grundys, who live over their stores.

Joseph Small, of $20 Adams street, a bartender in Grundy's saloon, was awakened by the clanging of the engine bells. He aroused the Grundys and the Zimmerles, and they all escaped with little trouble.

Goldstein's stock was damaged to the extent of $40,000,00, and the building, owned little trouble.

Goldstein's stock was damaged to the extent of $40.000, and the building, owned by G. F. Schoenck, of Flatbush, $5,000. Go'dstein is insured for $10.000. Zimmerle who kept the delicatessen store at No. 23, suffered a loss of $5,000. The building was damaged to the extent of $2,000. It is owned by Bernard Booth, of Southold, L. I.

HER WEAPON WAS A CRUCIFIX. RABBIS FIGHT IN A SALDON.

with Mandel.

street, near Downey, and Rabbi Mandel, of New York City, who likewise called in to bless a child, which was live to the unrestricted straying of their pigs, children and cows.

Mrs. McCabe said that during the row Nora his morning denied that she had assaulted Mary. She said that on the contrary, Mrs. McCabe rushed out of the orthodox Hebrews and asserted that his rival was not competent to perform the ceremony.

geance. The rabbis met on Belmont avenue, between Osborn street and Thatford avenue, yesterday, and began a bit and adjourned to a saloon, where they drank several glasses of beer. Then the quarrel was renewed. Sud-denly Rabbl Mandel seized Rabbi Nei-chin by his patriarchal gray beard and struck him with his disengaged hand. Rabbi Neichin jumped back, but left a generous handful of his beard in the hand of his rival. generous handrui of all and of his rival.

Rabbi Neichin appeared in the Gates
Rabbi Neichin appeared to lodge a Avenue Court this morning to lodge a

The Secretary of the Navy May Visit Brooklyn Next Week.

Secretary Herbert is expected at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard some time next When the Secretary arrives at the Navy-Yard, a salute of seventeen guns Navy-Yard, a salute of seventeen guns will be fired from the Cob Dock in honor of the distinguished visitor.

A corps of marines will form in front of the Lyceum Building, in double file and present arms as the Secretary of the Navy passes in, under the escort of Rear Admiral Bancroft Gherardi, Commandant of the Yard, while the band plays National airs.

It is not known whether the Secretary will visit the yard in his yacht or drive up in a carriage. up in a carriage.

FIFTY YEARS A PRIEST

Semi-Centennial of Father Malone's

Charge in One Parish. Father Sylvester Majone, pastor of St. Paul's and Peter's Church, in Williamsburg, has been a priest fifty years today. During all that time he has had charge of the parish in which he now labors. Father Malone's friends decided labors. Father Majone's friends decided to celebrate the esmi-centennial of his priesthood with appropriate exercises. This celebration was set for to-day, but owing to certain repairs now being made in Father Majone's church, it has been postponed until Sent. 15.

Father Majone received many congratulatory letters and telegrams to-day, and a number of his friends sent huge bouquets of flowers.

O'NEIL STABBED HIS GUEST.

The Trouble Arose at a Williams. burg Drinking Party.

William O'Neil, twenty years of age, of 250% Kingsland avenue, Williamsburg, was held in the Ewen Street Police was held in the lowen Street Police Court this morning on a charge of assault. Last night O'Nell invited a number of the findeon avenue, in the last run, and he says the shooting was accident to his home to drink. After getting away with an attern, and he says the shooting was accident to his home to drink. After getting away with several "pints" the men got into an altercation and the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabbed Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled Patrick Wilson, of the men got into an altercation and O'Nell stabled

FAIR LILLIAN WINS: E. ROOSEVELT DEAD. DESTROYED HIS SIGHT

Abbey Until Oct. 1.

Lederer Is in Force.

People.

Lillian Russell can sing, dance, play she pleases, up to Oct. 1, whether Manager Lederer likes it or not, is what Justice Bartlett practically says in modifying Justice Gaynor's injunction order to-day in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Canary & Lederer claim that Miss Russell made a contract with them for her exclusive services during the seasons of 1893-94 and 1894-96, and that this covers the vacation period between the two seasons as well. A few weeks ago they learned that i Miss Russell was about to leave for Europe to star in the "Queen of Brilliants" in London for Abbey, Schaeffer & Grau during September. They secured a temporary injunction from Justice Gaynor restraining Miss Russell from breaking her contract with them. Miss Russell sailed for Europe just the same.

Miss Russell was about to leave for Eu-

A motion was made in Miss Russell's behalf before Justice Bartlett a few days ago to modify the injunction to the extent that she might sing in Europe this summer. the extent that she might sing in Europe this summer.
Justice Bartlett's decision is that the contract between Miss Russell and Canary & Lederer only applies to the two separate dramatic seasons, and not to the Summer interval between them. He expresses his doubt as to whether Mr.
Lederer decoyed Miss Russell into making a contract under false pretenses, as she alleges. In relation to Miss Russell's objection that Canary & Ledere did not have as long a lease of the Casino as they represented they had, Justice Bartlett says. "It will be time enough to

IN FEAR OF HIS LIFE.

Sunt. Sittler Says Driver O'Brier

Threatened Him. John Sittler, of the Belt Line of his life, which was threatened by of the road. This morning the cardriver was arrested by Court Officer Beller on

Mr. Sittler and committed to prison for further examination.

The superintendent says that on Monday last O'Brien reported late for duty and was reprimanded by the superintendent. He at once became abusive, and Mr. Sittler ordered him suspended for a week. O'Brien swore that he would get even with him and then hisried away. Since then he has been discharged from the road.

A few days ago O'Brien called on the superintendent and threatened his life if he was interfered with in securing work on another road. On being arrested this morning he told Beller that he would "do" Sittler when he got out.

SUB-TREASURY TOOK IT.

How the Official Got Rid of a Bad

Quarter.

"I had four 190 gold pieces of '94 in my pocket when I went home from the official to a Hawkeye reporter, "and I couldn't buy a thing in my neighborhood."

"You haven't a bad face, either," siy ly suggested a friend.

"Everybody seemed to think they were counterfeit," he went on, without notioning the tenor of the interruption. "You see, they were the first of the new coinsee, and new in appearance that people were afraid of them. They didn't exactly say they believed I was a counterfeiter, as but they looked upon the coin suspiciously. When I went to the barber said the would trust me rather than get the $20 piece changed. There was a man getting out of the next chair who wanted to see it. He turned it over and over in a critical way for a moment, and said, authoritatively:

"It's a counterfeit."

"Where did you get it? inquired the barber. "Oh, down town," said I.

"Yes," said I, "I know him pretty wail."

"Well, its' no good, and the quicker you take it back to him the beiter, said the other fellow, as he pulled on the coal. "It's some of them Italians' work," said the barber. "They can make a coin look better than the real stuff."

"After I had listened to all this, "After I had listened to an accounterfeit that he are all this."

"It's a one of them Italians' work," said the barber. "They can make a coin look better than the real stuff."

"After I had listened to all this, "After I had listened to all this, "After I had listened to all this."

Yes, said I, I know him pretty well.

"Well, its no good, and the quicker you take it back to him the better, said the other fellow, as he pulled on his coat.

"It's some of them Italians' work, said the barber. They can make a coin look better than the real stuff.

"After I had listened to all this I finally told them that I had got the coin out of the Sub-Treasury, and guessed it was all right. The customer went out without a word, but the barber said the Italians had probably beaten the Treasury.

"A sort of a sympathetic walk-out. I suppose?"
No, Your Honor Nothing sympathetic about it at all. And it wasn't a walk-out. I ran."
"Well, I presume by this time you are ready to resume pour work?"
"If Your Honor has the price. I couldn't stand him off.
"Oh, I'll fix you all right. The trouble has quieted down and I think you'll find everything ready to start up to-morrow morning."
"Up for what. Your Honor?"
"Up for walk. Your Honor?"
"Up for walk. Your Honor?"

WHAT ARE JERSEY SIXES?
It good Smokers for 16 cents. Should your dealer for U. L. Watersen, seventeen years old, who of have them yet, send in cents for Box of 25 to impulacturers. GHARLENC, DAVIS & CO., New Brunswick, N. J. height, and was dressed in dark clothes.

Miss Russell Free to Sing for Sudden End of a Life that Was Would Be Suicide W. B. Law Wofully Misspent. rence's May Recover.

Then Her Contract with Canary & Lived in Seclusion the Past Year Mystery of a Note Telling of Rose Campbell's "Danger."

Decision of importance to Theatrical Attended Only by His Valet and It Was Signed "J. A. Lawrence" street, after an illness extending over a period of only four days.

was not at all in a condition to with-Mr. Roosevelt has practically lived the life of a recluse for the past year. residence at 313 West One Hundred and Second street, near West End avenue, and has lived there alone attended only

The agent of the house has known Mr. Roosevelt only as Mr. Eliot, in which name the lease was drawn. The secret Europe with his wife and two children in order to receive treatment from a Paris specialist.

While in Paris Mr. Roosevelt gradually valentine in the asylum enth street.

Mr. Roosevelt remained in the asylum for about nine months, when he was brought here for examination as to his sanity upon the petition of Theodore Roosevelt, with the approval of the lat-

Roosevell, with the approva-ter's wife.

Justice O'Brien, Aug. 17, 1881, appointed Peter B. Olney, Dr. Cyrus Edson and Edward V. Loew commissioners to in-quire into Mr. Roosevelt's sanity. Later another commission was appointed by went out without a word, but the barber said the Italians had probably beater that Treasury.

COINED PLATINUM.

"Now, that sounded funny to me, of course," continued the official, "but the rext day I went aver to the Bub-Treasury and got a lot of change, and among the change I got a quarter that my wife tried on everybody she could think to fan a good deal. I examined the colin and found it was a counterfeit. It was a good deal. I examined the colin and found it was a counterfeit. It was a very good one, but it was unquestionable to none else would have it, and passed it on the Bub-Treasury.

THE VICTIM OF A STRIKE.

A Bartender with a Boitle Caused the Trouble.

"Well, I suppose you are another victim of the strike," exclaimed the justice as the ragged tramp was brought before him, says the Chicago Post.

"Yes, Your Honor," replied the prisoner, meekly.

"Porced to go out, of course?"

"Yes, Your Honor," replied the prisoner, meekly.

"Porced to go out, of course?"

"Yes, Your Honor," replied the prisoner, meekly.

"Any real grievances?"

"Yes, Your Honor," replied the prisoner, meekly.

"Any real grievances?"

"Yes, Your Honor," replied the prisoner, meekly.

"Any real grievances?"

"Yes, Your Honor," replied the prisoner, meekly.

"Yes your Honor," replied the prisoner, meekly.

"Yes your Honor," when the prisoner from the produced any of it to speak of, which may be a tip to some of our silver friends. Platinum is lower than it was two years ago, being word the prisoner, the prisoner, erty of the home. Stranger-So did I, sir, and am still Probably Meyer's Body. A body found in the East Stiver, near Roberts's Stores, peaterday efferment is thought to be that at Moritz Mayer, who disappeared from his home, 40 Humboldt atreet, Williamsburg, on Aug. 4 Pawa tickets bearing that name were found in the clothing. Police Asked to Look for a Boy The Brookira police have been asked to look or do as she pleases, and for any one Service Commissioner Theodore Roose- attempted to commit suicide at 11.30 home, 313 West One Hundred and Second emy of Medicine, at 11 West Forty-third Ten Eyck, a pretty fifteen-year-old councarried into the Century Club-House and subsequently taken to the Roosevelt late hour last night.

> hospital were very reticent and would sey, saying that his daughter was misssay nothing about Mr. Lawrence's condition, except that he was about the on the gate post While "The Evening World" reporter was sitting in the office of the hospital he noticed a curious circumstance which may have a bearing upon the attempted suicide of Lawrence. Lying on the cierk's desk was a piece of paper upon which was written:

name the lease was drawn. The secret of his identity has been so well kept that only Mr. Roosevelt's closest friends knew where he lived. Even some of his relatives were ignorant of his whereabouts, and wil lonly be made aware of his address when they read this.

Mr. Roosevelt died with only his valet and his physician, Dr. F. W. Holman, of 237 West One Hundred and Forty-fifth street, at his bedside. His valet at once notified the dead man's uncle, James K. Gracie, of Oyster Bay, but up to 10 o'clock this forenoon Mr. Gracie had not arrived at his nephew's house. To Mr. Gracie will be left the duty of notifying Mr. Roosevelt's family and making the arrangements for his funeral.

By advice of physicians he went to Europe with his wife and two children in order to receive treatment from a contract of the contract of the century Club was plainly visible on the series of the contract of the Century Club was plainly visible on the series of the century Club was plainly visible on the century Club was one of the provision of the century Club and the century Club was one of the provision of the century Club was plainly visible on the century Club was plainly visible on the century Club was one of the provision was detailed to watch over Lawrence at the complex of the century Club was plainly visible on the century Club was plainly visible on the centu sidewaik this morning, although attempts had evidently been made to wash it off. Dr. J. O. Tansiey, who lives nearly opposite the Century Club and who was one of the physicians called who was one of the physicians called last night to attend Lawrence, said this morning:

"I was only with the wounded man for a few minutes, and was not called for half an hour after the shooting. When I saw him he was perfectly rational, and knew me by my voice. I don't think he had been drinking.

"He could not see me, as his eyes were closed, and he could not open them. The eyelids were bulged out nearly an inch, showing that the optical orbits of both eyes were filled with blood.

"I judged from that and from the lecation of the bullet wound, which was about an inch from the right eye. In the temple, that the builet had passed through the optical cavity. The optic nerves were probably destreyed.

"I should say that even if Liwrence recovers he will be totally blind."

F. Wesstrom, the janitor of the Academy of Medicine, was the last man to speak to Mr. Lawrence before he fired the shot. He said:

"It was 11.20 o'clock last evening when I came in. I noticed a man sitting in the shadow. I thought he was a tramp, as they sometimes sneak behind the pillar to sleep.

as they sometimes sneak behind the pillar to sleep.

"I was about to order him away, when coming nearer, I saw he was a gentleman. He looked up and said he was a gentleman. He looked up and said he was a gentleman. He looked up and said he was a gentleman. He looked up and said he was a gentleman to him not to disturb himself. "Then I went to my rooms on the top to the building and to bed. I did not hear the shot. I did not notice whether he was agitated."

The clerk of the Hotel Renaissance on the stoop of the club-house. He had seted as if not quite himself during the last few days, but was not sufficiently erratic to excite comment.

Mr. Lawrence is about fifty years old. He is said to be a confirmed bachelor and his soldierly figure is well known among the promenaders on Fofth avenue. He has been a member of the Century Club since 1874 and has lived in the building since its erection.

He had desk room in the office of Paul F. Mohr and Prof. William H. Chamdler, chemical experts, at 44 Broadway, but had not been there, except for his mail, during the past three weeks.

His brother. Samuel B. Lawrence, called at the hospital this morning. He said to the rash act, but refused to enter into details.

HE GOT A SEAT.

Express.

Among the latter was a diffident-looking, mild-mannered man, who, much to the conductor's surprise, refused to give up a ticket.

"When I get a seat you get a ticket," he remarked, mildly, but firmly. "You the passenger sale analysis antly.

Then the conductor hustled around and finally found a brother-conductor, who was going up the road a way, whom he induced to give up his seat to the mildly firm passenger.

"There's a seat for you; now give me that ticket," said the conductor in a feroclous tone. ferocious tone.
"Certainly; here it is."
And the mild but firm passenger handed out a pass good to Chicago.

Had Wrinkles to Spare.

very wise, I dare say, but I could give you a wrinkle or two.
Younger Sister-No doubt-and never miss them.

ELOPED WITH A COUNTRY LASS PILGRIMS AT THE SHRINE.

by the Light of the Moon.

She's Only 15 Years Old and He is The Procession and Exercises La Simply a Boy.

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Aug. 15. Miss came to Flemington at 2 o'clock this

ACCUSES THE CAPTAIN.

to Go Ahead and Sell Liquor. J. A. Nagolski, a saloon-keeper, of 26 Vashington street, Jersey City, when place to-day on a charge of selling liquor not have a license, and said that he had not have a license, and said that he had been selling because Capt. Farrier allowed him to do so. He said Capt. Farridier told him to go on and sell until he obtained a license.

Nagolski applied for a license in July last, and it was granted, but he never paid the license fee of $250.

Justice Potts fined the prisoner $50.

It is probable that the Police Board will make an investigation.

Capt. Farrier has been in trouble before.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

The Passenger with a Pass Fooled the Conductor.

A west-bound train had just rolled out of the union station and the conductor was harvesting tickets. All the seats were taken and several passengers were obliged to stand up, says the Albany Express.

Among the latter was a diffident-looking, mild-mannered man, who, much looking, mild-mannered man, who, much

Miller, E. A. Youngel, W. T. Prench and T. Nixon.

Secretary James E Sullivan has arranged the following events to be decided at the Olympiad to be given by the New Jersey Athletic Club at the grounds in Bayonne City, N. J., on Labor Day: Athletic events—160-yard dash, handicap, 120-yard hurdle scratch, invitation; one-mile walk, handicap, 20 seconds limit; two-mile run, handicap, 180-yard run, handicap, and 460-yard r

The New York Athletic Club has changed the date of its Fall games from Sept. 22 to Sept. 15.

The management of the Seaside letic Club announces the completion of arrangements for the coming exhibition on Monday evening. Aug. 27. The programme includes twenty-four rounds a boxing and a collar-and-elbow wrestling match. The wrestling bout will be the curtain-raiser, and is to be contested by Joe Ryan and Homer Lane. Evan is the present champion. Con Sullivan the curtain-raiser, and is to be contested by Joe Ryan and Homer Lane. Hyan is the present champion. Con Sullivan, the clever New York bantain, will box six rounds with Jack Madden of Brooklyn, at 166 pounds. Madden is the champion amateur in his class and has made a local reputation. Al O'Brien, of Philadelphia, whose good showing at the New York Athietic Club has made him known hereabouts, will contest eight rounds at 125 pounds with Charley Burns, a Cincinnati light-weight, who brings a record of several victories in that vicinity. The ten-round bout between Jack McAuliffe and Young Griffo has provoked lively interest, and all sorts of comments are heard as to the probable outcome. To some it appears that the champion's speed and generalship cannot ful to outpoint the Australian. Others are not so sanguine, and assert that Jack has a hig piece of work cut out for him, in which he may not finish on top, Both are said to be training hard and conscientiously for the bout.

Chris Smith only bet enough to win $2,000 on his mare. Yo Tambien. Her last race puzzled him, and he did not think her quite good. Frank Jordan, the boy who rides Yo Tambien better than any one eise, arrived at the track too late to take the mount, Martin having already been engaged.

Turner and Miss Ten Eyck Skipped More Than 5,000 of Them Do Honor to St. Anthony's Memory.

by Archbishop Satolli.

village, the scene of so many miracu-lous cures at the Shrine of St. Anend the beginning of the celebration of the seven hundredt's year of the birth of the great thaumature of the Franiscan Order, St. Anthony of Padua. The celebration to-day excites unt ual interest on account of the visit of Archbishop Satolli, the Apostolic Dele gate from Rome to this country. The the Franciscaus of the Shrine. The jubilee opened last night at 8

Satolli on a special train from Jersey City. He was accompanied by Dr. Kennedy, of the Catholic Seminary at Washington, Very Revs.Boniface da Verona nedy, of the Catholic Seminary at Washington, Very Revs.Boniface da Verona.

O. S. F., and Daniel a Toffia. O. S. F., of New York City.

At the railroad station the Papai delegate was met by a committee of citizens, a band and members of the congregation. The party was driven to the Shrine, passing through a passageway formed on either road of the hill leading to the church, of about five hundred men, women and children of the parish.

The shrine was brillantly illuminated on the outside with hundreds of candles.
At the entrance of the church the Archbishop was met by the rector, Rev.
Father Albert, O. S. F., and the assisting clergy, according to the Roman ritual. Altar boys proceeded the procession carrying candles.

As the procession marched up the centre alisle Prof. J. G. Fritz rendered on the new pipe organ a prelude, which was followed by the choir singing
"Ecce Sacerios" (Behold the High Priest), which had been composed for the occasion by Prof. Fritz.

After the benediction by Archbishop Satolli, he blessed the new organ, and after this special service was held at the side chapel, within the shrine proper, and the jubilee year was formally declared to be opened. As the last prayer was said a signal was given to the Committee in charge on the outside of the building, when a large bonfire was lighted and seven volleys fired from a cannon, one for each of the seven centuries of the anniversary of St. Anthony, Red fire was burned on the lawn and the band played in front of the parochial

A large number of pilgrims who came ter which was obscure and vague in its construction. Sure enough, he has had be declared to make any unacceptable of Could he have known that Peter Jackson intended to make any unacceptable proposition, or is "Lanky Bob" a seer? This morning special trains began to arrive with visitors. By noon at least 5,000 people were at the Shrine.

At 11 o'clock Archbishop Satolli and the clergy formed in procession at the rectory and marched to the church. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father the is matched to fight Creedon at New Orleans next month. If he wins, Steve or Chonnell will give him a match that he has long been anxious for. Then there is Peter Maher, who will insist that any man claiming the right to challenge for the heavy-weight champions in the carcass. But, perhaps, Fix will declare that he will meet "nothing but champions."

A "Mr. Murphy" writes that he will fight any 175-pound man to a finish under Marquis of Queensbery rules, for any amount up to $2,000, winner to take all. Mr. Murphy has overlooked a cus-

BASEBALL CHAT.

longed the agony until the eighth inthat game yesterday. There are first never saw such agility, such terrific coaching and rooting as Roger Connor bat! Still, Roger couldn't win the game. consequently were others in the game. And "Lazy" Jack Doyle—those who know Jack best however, was miserable, several long say he's lasy—was covering first base, delays being experienced. Four favor-

Under the mellowing influence of such pleasing diet as they gave the Chicago team yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday Capt. Anson's boys salled in and taught Brooklyn a few tricks in the National pastime. The Chicago Club alawys stops at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Anson thinks that place is scarcely good enough. Try and imagine where they'd stop if they were winners!

The percentage record to-day stands

Yesterday's game in Eastern Park was a slow, spiritless session, except when fluminated by an occasional fash of brilliant fielding. Chicago would have two men out in an inning and then make a hit, only to retire on a cipher. From Stration's manner of delivery it looked as if the Grooms might have Lammered him all over the lot, although such an event did not happen. That triple play, worked by Lange, Dahlen and Decker, was performed while the Brooklyn runners were in a sort of stuper and did not realize what was going on.

Papa Anson reminded old-timers of the ancient manner in which a "kick" Jack Hennett cashed in one of kick to So in Riley Granusn's book. The ister lost heavily to the racer.

NEW JERSEY NEWS. APRAHAM AND STRAUS

Fulton St., Brooklyn.

Sacrifice of 300 WRAPPERS

Indigo Blue, Mourning Patterns, and Black Grounds with Colored Figures, desirable styles, trimmed with ruffles over shoulders.

ABRAHAM ....

Something prompted Burns to coach Kennedy down to second while Kinslew occupied that hag and the ball was still in the infield. Just what kind of a play Tommy was trying to put through was not apparent, and the 'fans' have not yet figured it out. Acting Cast. Griffin was wrought up over the injudicious and disastrous play, and he called Burns down hard for it.

A great top was made by La Chence of Lange's victous grounder, but not a Brooklynite moved to cover the bag, although three men watched the big baseman make the play and stood within two steps of the base.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF. the talent didn't care much. For the most part, they let these races alone, expecting surprises. Pactolus, Mary Stone, Lochi.var and Jennie A. all "Evening World" selections, was events. In the last race Pochino, who was miserably ridden the last time cut, had the services of Hamilton, and, after a hard drive, succeeded in beating armitage. Just before the race Pochino worked through the stretch like a wild horse, and the railbirds got on to man.

McClain messed Terrapin about badly in the second race. Properly ridden, he would have been nearer the leader and might have won.

It is said that Mary Stone is in foal. If this is true her race yesterday was a remarkable effort.

Patrick Dunn has purchased the two-year-old colt Flying Dutchman from W. L. Simmons. The price is said to have been $15.000. The colt recently went five and a half furlongs at Washington Park in 1.07 3-4, with 117 pounds up. George Harris is said to have bet ser-eral hundred dollars on Cromwell at odds ranging from 30 to 60 to 1.

A despatch from Butte, Mon., says that Robbie P., owned by Ed Pyle, of Grand Island, Neb., has broken the world's record for a horse driven by his breeder and owner, making a mile in 2.12 1-2. The best previous record was 2.13, held by Nelson, at Grand Rapids in 1832.

Nelson, at Grand Rapius in least the Pimlico Driving Club will hold a running race meeting at Pimlico, beginning Oct. Is. There has not been a running race meet there since the dissolution of the Maryland Jockey Club. The best talent in the country is promised at the meeting.

The entries for the Grand Circuit meeting of the Charter Oak Driving Park and the National Association of Trotting Horse Breeders at Charter Oak Park, Hartford, on Aug. 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31, for purses aggregating $60,000, include the fastest trotters and pacers of the Grand Circuit.

Yo Tambien's brilliant victory in the Foster Memorial Handicap lends additional interest to the Moet & Chandion Stakes, for in this event on Saturday the great mare will probably meet Ramapo. The latter is probably the bess horse now in training, and if the mare beats him, then she is all the West claims for her. Considering the fact that Martin handled her none too well and that the mare had to go around her field, her victory was a grand effort.

did."
"I don't know his name. Your Honor. He was a new bartender to me."
"Oh, the bartender struck first?"
"Yes, Your Honor."
"And then you went out?"
"I had to go out, Your Honor. He had an empty pop bottle."
"A sort of a sympathetic walk-out, I suppose?"

He Was Still Fighting.

(From the Adams Freeman.) fighting for it.
"Indeed, what regiment were you in?"
"No regiment, sir, but I'm married, and my wife rules the roost."

"When I get a seat you get a ticket," he remarked, mildly, but firmly. "You are probably aware that the company cannot collect fare from passengers whom it does not provide with seats."

"Oh, come, now; that don't go. I want your ticket, see?" Thus spoke the conductor, in a tone that indicated that he believed he would intimidate the mild-mannered man.

"No seat, no ticket," laconically observed the latter.

"We'll see about that," growled the conductor, who was becoming quite warm in the region of the collar.

"I would if I were you," remarked the passenger, still mildly, smiling pleasantly.

(From Tid-Bits.) Elder Sister-Oh, you fancy yourself

